

A man with short dark hair, wearing a white t-shirt, black shorts, white socks, and white sneakers, is seated on a leg press machine in a gym. He is looking down and slightly to his left. The machine is a large, grey metal frame with a black seat and footplate. The brand name 'PRECO' is visible on the side of the machine. In the background, other gym equipment and a person are visible, but they are out of focus. The lighting is warm and indoor.
